

DANIEL T. GEZON

EDUCATION:

B.S., Civil Engineering, Michigan Technological University, 2009

B.S., Environmental Engineering, Michigan Technological University, 2009

PROFESSIONAL LICENSES AND CERTIFICATIONS:

Engineering Intern - Colorado

CURRENT PROFESSIONAL INVOLVEMENT: 2009-present, AquAeTer, Project Engineer

Mr. Gezon recently joined AquAeTer in the Centennial, Colorado office to assist with environmental and civil engineering related projects. Mr. Gezon has experience in groundwater monitoring, environmental permitting, solid and hazardous waste management facilities, water quality studies, hydrogeology studies, water and wastewater treatment and conveyance, air quality engineering, and water resource engineering.

PRIOR PROFESSIONAL INVOLVEMENT:

2005-2007 Prein & Newhof, Grand Rapids, Michigan, Construction Inspector

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

Environmental Investigations

Water Resource Engineering

Water/Wastewater Treatment

Municipal and Hazardous Waste Management

Environmental and Resource Economics

Pollution Prevention

Air Quality and Regulation

Mass Balance Approach

Soils Engineering

Low Impact Development